

Budding businesspersons meet Baronness

BARONESS Floella Benjamin is a Trinidadian-born, British actress, author, television presenter, businesswoman and politician.

Currently the Chancellor of the University of Exeter, she gave a stunning presentation at the BEF Summit to which the $20 Challenge finalists were privy. During this speech, all present learned of Floella's interest in children and her passion for young people really came out as she presented six of the seven finalists from the BEF $20 Challenge. Missing on the day was Joanne Blackman from Queen's College.
